

Healthy Homes People Lives and Communities (HHPLC) Job Role:
Community Worker x2 (Young person and Wellbeing)

Location: North Wales

Work Base: Greenfield Business Centre and Clwyd Alyn Head Office (Home Working in line with Current Covid Regulations) Hours of Work: Full-time 37 hrs (job share and flexible working available)

Salary: £21,741

Contract length: Until 31st October 2023

An exciting opportunity to be part of this new initiative, Healthy Homes People Lives and Communities (HHPLC). As community worker you will be at the forefront of work being led by ClwydAlyn Housing in partnership with Warm Wales and TGP Cymru Team Around the Tenancy, supporting vulnerable households across North Wales to be warmer, safer and healthier.

Employing a holistic approach that recognises the links between fuel poverty, avoidable health inequalities and well-being, HHPLC will engage directly with ClwydAlyn residents, along with those in the wider community, providing a range of interventions that address the causes of fuel poverty and tackle associated health and well-being issues. Individuals will be supported by trained Energy Community Workers, either in person or over the phone, who will work with households to reduce utility expenditure and improve energy efficiency of their homes.

You will be working for Warm Wales which was established in 2004. Warm Wales works to provide homes with affordable warmth and to alleviate fuel poverty. We work closely with the public and private sectors to maximise funding opportunities which enable individual and area wide energy efficiency schemes.

The focus of the job will be to work in selected communities to identify and help vulnerable fuel poor households particularly those in poor housing stock with insufficient heating and experiencing fuel poverty.

Please complete the Warm Wales-Cymru Gynnes application form and provide a covering letter explaining what you would bring to the role. You may add a as well CV if you wish.

Email it to Joanna.seymour@warmwales.org.uk or drop it off at Unit 105, Greenfield Business Centre, Bagillit Road, Greenfield, CH8 7GR
