About Crescent Court

Crescent Court in Rhyl is a supported living scheme dedicated to helping individuals between 16 – 25 year olds who are experiencing homelessness by providing them with a safe place to stay and the support they need to regain independence. Providing support with residents with life skills, tenancy management, and accessing services that help them move towards independent living.

The work is both challenging and rewarding, requiring empathy, resilience, and a commitment to making a difference. You'll build trusting relationships with residents, help them overcome barriers, and support them in developing confidence and stability.

Is This Role Right for Me?

Working as a Project Worker at Crescent Court is a unique and fulfilling opportunity to make a tangible difference in the lives of individuals struggling with homelessness.

If you are passionate about helping others, resilient in the face of challenges, and driven by the values of Trust, Kindness, and Hope, this role could be the perfect fit for you.

Key Personal Attributes

- Empathy and Compassion – You will be supporting individuals who are on a difficult journey, requiring patience, understanding, and a non-judgmental attitude.
- Resilience and Emotional Strength – Some situations may be challenging, but your ability to stay positive and focused will be key.
- Strong Communication Skills – Building trusting relationships with residents, colleagues, and external partners is vital to the success of your work.
- Problem-Solving Abilities – Every resident's situation is unique, requiring creative and flexible approaches to support their progress.
- Team Player Mentality – Collaboration with colleagues ensures the best outcomes for those in our care.

Challenges of the Role

- Working with Vulnerable Individuals – Many residents have experienced trauma, mental health struggles, and long-term addiction, requiring sensitive and ongoing support.
- Emotional Demands – The role can be emotionally taxing, as not every individual will progress at the same rate or in a linear fashion.
- Crisis Management – Situations may arise where residents need urgent intervention or additional support, requiring quick thinking and composure.

The Rewards of Working at Norfolk House & ClwydAlyn

- Making a Difference – Your work will have a lasting impact, helping individuals rebuild their lives and regain their independence.
- A Supportive Team Environment – ClwydAlyn fosters a culture of teamwork, ensuring you have guidance and support in your role.
- Personal and Professional Growth – Gain invaluable experience in social care, with opportunities for training and career progression.
- Seeing Positive Change – Witnessing residents achieve milestones, overcome struggles, and move towards independent living is incredibly rewarding.

Key Roles and Core Functions

Relationship building and teamwork is key to the success of this role. You will provide advice and support to our residents, empowering and encouraging them to make positive choices which could lead to volunteering, apprenticeships, work placements, education and ultimately moving onto living an independent lifestyle and contributing and feeling part of the community.

Your role is crucial in supporting and helping develop life skills and the skills required to maintain a tenancy once they move on to independent living. Skills to help support and encourage to develop include, cooking, cleaning, welfare benefits, access to healthcare and signposting to specialist services such as substance misuse services and mental health services

The role is both challenging and rewarding - making a real difference to people's lives means that you'll need to be bold, passionate and confident in having open and honest conversations.

As a Project Worker you will:

- Facilitate opportunities including activities for residents which will promote social inclusion, confidence, social skills, wellbeing and diversity.
- Lead on our values incorporating safeguarding and health and safety in everything you do.
- Have a flexible and proactive approach to supporting our residents and supporting the team
- Lead by example, demonstrating our values, behaviours and Code of Conduct.
- Be accountable for your own and team actions.
- Be open and encourage honest conversations, be willing to accept and act on constructive feedback, keeping people informed, and always do what we've said we'll do.
- Having a resilient approach to dealing with challenging behaviours.
- Take pride in your working environment.
- Treat everyone as an individual.
- Be open to change and work with partner agencies so that we can achieve more and find solutions to the challenges we face.
- Believe in bringing out the best in people, equipping them to make their own decisions and meeting their full potential.
- Be able to record and capture the progress of a resident's journey
